Mr J. C Collier,
Barnsville.
Ga.

Dear Mr. Collier;

Am returning the list back at last. Guess you've lost all hopes of ever getting it back again. Am sorry I've kept it so long but didn't know much about our descendants. Am sorry to say, I sent it to my sister, Mrs. Damascus to see and she didn't know much about them either. What little I've written may be some benefit to you, I hope so.

My father died in Civil War before my birth. My Mother died

when I was eighteen years
of age. leaving two Children
Ida Collier. and Myself.
I wish I did know More about our ancestors than I do.

My father had
some brothers in Texas,
somewhere. I've never seen any of their generation. I know I have some relatives
on my fathers side some where.

Thanking You very much. would like to See You, Come to see me sometimes.

Respectfully Yours.
Mr W. J. Collier.
